

O I D P

Working Group to write a new IOPD Regulation

Objective:

Compose and write a new regulation of the IOPD, to define more clearly the objectives, rights and duties of members, governing bodies, decision making, and working methodology of the IOPD.

Methodology:

Call and closure of the composition of the working group: the call is sent to members of the IOPD to enroll the working group.

"Brainstorming": the first phase will be a brainstorming and input from group members. Participants propose any ideas, content, illustration or other content that will be stored in a document. Starting from these ideas a first document structure is drawn.

Writing the first draft: It will be a structure with the main points of future regulation and begin to write the articles. Once wrote this draft will be distributed among group members to carry out amendments to this text.

Starting from the initial structure and amendments will be drafted more precisely the body of the regulation. And again it shall make available to group members for their review and make appropriate amendments.

Once the final regulation will be writing and translate in the IOPD official languages and IOPD members for approval would be sent during the next internal meeting of OI DP.

Calendar:

September 2014: call and closing the composition of the working group

O I D P

October: "Brainstorming"

November: Writing the first draft

December: Discussion on the first draft

January: Preparation of the final document

February: Final Amendments

March: Final Document - translations

Late March: IOPD Internal Meeting → Approval of the regulation