

Together we create a sustainable future for everyone in a magnificent mountain environment

Åre municipality

- Population 12 182 persons
- Sweden's 11th largest municipality (8 237 km²)
- Tourism and small businesses
- Second highest proportion of entrepreneurs in Sweden 12,5 %
- Sweden's second fastest growing municipality in terms of population

Citizen dialogue

”Tillsammans skapar vi en hållbar framtid för alla i storslagen fjällmiljö” are.se | kundtjanst@are.se | 0647-161 00

Together we create a sustainable future for everyone in a magnificent mountain environment

1. Participation, Åre municipality will facilitate for citizens to participate in and be able to influence decisionmaking, important for the municipality's development
2. Equality, Åre municipality will actively work for equal conditions geographically and identify local strengths.
3. Diversity, Åre municipality shall strive for diversity, in business, culture and leisure activities
4. Sustainability, Åre municipality will actively work for the three parts of sustainable development, environmental, economical and social sustainability.
5. The expansion of municipal services in Åre municipality must go hand in hand with growth and occupancy
6. Responsibility and direction, Åre municipality must take responsibility, make courageous decisions and show a clear direction.
7. Preserve nature, Åre municipality will preserve the magnificent nature. Development must take place sustainably. Everyone should have the opportunity to enjoy nature.
8. Develop with reflection, Åre municipality will develop with reflection. When planning new buildingprojects the untouched nature must be protected, aesthetics given priority and cultural environments protected