

4th Season of Cities in Transition, 7 and 8 December 2022

Program

The 48 hours of inclusive transition

The role of municipal cooperation and networks

Tuesday 6 December

Associated activities open to the general public

Maison de l'International de Grenoble (1 rue Hector Berlioz)

18h30-20h30: Ceremony of the PLATFORMAwards

- Rewarding excellence in international action by cities and regions
- Free entrance within the limits of available places. Registration recommended

20h30-21h30: Reception

DAY 1: Wednesday, 7 December

Morning: Grenoble City Hall (11 Boulevard Jean Pain, Grenoble)

Afternoon: Abbey district

9h00-9h30: Welcome of participants

- Exhibition of Grenoble Green Capital of Europe 2022 "Here we build the city in transition"

9h30- 10h00: Icebreaker

- Proposed by Grenoble Ville Ouverte, Department of Local, European and International Cooperation of the City of Grenoble

10h00-10h30: Plenary opening

- Speaker to be confirmed
→ What is inclusive transition?
- Katia Bacher, Elected representative of the City of Grenoble for the Cities in transition Network
→ Inclusive transition in the Cities in transition networks.
- Member of CEMR, Council of European Municipalities and Regions
→ Inclusive transition in international cooperation, an added value for effective policies

10h45-12h15: Panel of speakers: Transition for everybody

Economic crisis, ecological crisis, global migration: lessons from international cooperation policies

Possibility to follow by videoconference

- Céline Deslattes, Vice-President of Grenoble-Alpes Métropole, in charge of employment, integration and youth → Thinking about the link between the social and the environmental
- Member of CEMR, Council of European Municipalities and Regions
→ How do local experiences provide responses to global crises?
- Emmanuel Carroz, Deputy Mayor of Grenoble: Memory, Migration and International Cooperation, Europe
→ Are the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) an answer?
- Member of CEMR, Council of European Municipalities and Regions
→ How can cooperation between territories drive change on an international scale?

12h15-13h00: Lunch

- Catering Radi'selle,
 - o Experts in eco-responsible, local and waste-free catering

→ Social inclusion and citizen participation for an inclusive transition

13h00-13h15: Going to Un Jardin Sans Frontières (“A Garden Without Borders”)

13h15-13h45: Visit to “A Garden Without Borders”

- Presentation of the initiative
- Meeting with gardeners

14h00-14h45: Maison des Habitants-es: How to involve a neighbourhood in transitions and Equal rights.

- Meeting with Serge Durieux, Territory Director Sector 5 of Grenoble
- Presentations of the greening workshops
- Presentation "Vélo-school": Learning to ride a bike in the MDHs of Grenoble

14h45-15h15: Disability and transitions: accessibility projects

- Meeting with Luis Beltran-Lopez, elected representative of the City of Grenoble for Disability and Accessibility.

15h15-16h00: Guided tour of the Abbaye neighbourhood, an inclusive story

- With Nicolas Quantin, City of Grenoble, Abbaye Project Manager

16h00-16h45: Visit of the project Les Volets Verts: a place of sharing, transition and hospitality.

- Meeting with Le Grand Collectif and Le Collectif Voisin.

16h45-17h15: Christmas market in the Abbey district

Associated activities open to the general public

Maison de la Culture (MC2) de Grenoble

18h00: Opening ceremony of the 21st Annual Conference of the International Observatory on Participatory Democracy (IOPD)

DAY 2: Thursday, 8 December

Morning: Municipal Theater of Grenoble (4 rue Hector Berlioz)

Afternoon: Maison de l'International de Grenoble (1 rue Hector Berlioz)

9h00-9h30: Welcome coffee at the Maison de l'International de Grenoble

9h30-11h00: Conference: Carte blanche of the Scientific Council: From the trenches to the avenues of participatory democracy

→ Annual Conference of the International Observatory on Participatory Democracy (IOPD)

- Yves Cabannes University College London, England
- Giovanni Allegretti, University of Coimbra, Portugal

11:30-13:00: Round Table: Participation and ecological transition: feedback

→ Annual Conference of the International Observatory on Participatory Democracy (IOPD)

- Carlos Ribeiro and Isabel Loureiro, City of Guimaraes, Portugal
- Irene Alonso Toucido, Federation for Innovation in Democracy, Belgium
- Josh Lerner and Amanda Luz, People Powered, Kenya
- Nathalie van Loon and Jan Duffhues, City of Amsterdam

13h00-14h00: Lunch at Maison de l'International

- Cuisine sans frontières (“Borderless Cooking”)
 - Association of Grenoble that consider cooking as an encounter of different cultures
- With the guests of the International Observatory on Participatory Democracy

14h00-15h00: Agora: Shared experiences

- Presentations of the PLATFORMAwards' winning partnerships and cities of the Cities in Transition Network

15h00-16h15: Workshop with CEMR: how to renew twinning programs cooperation to meet the challenges of sustainability.

- (under definition)

16h15-16h45: Creative workshop: Imagine the cooperation network model for cities of tomorrow.

- (under definition)

16h45-17h00: Closing

- Member of CEMR
- Katia Bacher, Elected representative of the City of Grenoble for Cities in Transition Networks

Associated activities open to the general public

Musée de Grenoble (5 place Lavalette, Grenoble)

18h00: Participation Awards 2022

(Annual Conference of the International Observatory on Participatory Democracy)

⇒ Registration required on the IOPD website

Partnerships:

Ce projet est co-financé par l'Union européenne

