

THE LOCALIZATION OF THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS IN LATIN AMERICA: AN ANALYSIS BASED ON GENDER EQUALITY INDICATORS

PANELISTS

GABRIELLA BEIRA

Mestre em
Governança
Global pela
PUC SP

JOYCE TRINDADE

Secretária
Especial de
Políticas e
Promoção da
Mulher

HELENA PEDROSO

Diretora de Responsabilida
de Corporativa
e Direitos
Humanos

STELLINHA MORAES

Fundadora e gestora da
ONG da Tia
Stellinha

THE GENDER GAP WORLDWIDE

WORKPLACE

The gender parity has reached its lowest level since 2006 (WEF, 2022)

LEADERSHIP

Leadership positions held by women increased only 1% since 2015 (UN, 2023)

PARLIAMENTS

Women are only 24% of the seats in national parliaments (UNDP, 2023)

JUSTIFICATION

GENDER EQUALITY is central to the 2030 Agenda (UN, 2015)

CITIES AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS are key stakeholders on the implementation of the SDGs (OECD, 2020)

LAYERS OF THE RESEARCH

LOCALIZATION

- Process of local adaptation
- Local indicators are diverse

VLR

- Report the local progress
- Buenos Aires, Ciudad de México and São Paulo

SDG 5

Equal opportunities for leadership at all levels of decision making in political, economic and public life

LOCAL INDICATORS OF WOMEN IN PUBLIC LIFE

BUENOS AIRES

Porcentaje de cargos superiores del GCBA ocupados por mujeres

2020: 37,5%

Goal for 2030: -

SÃO PAULO

Percentual de Mulheres no comando das secretarias municipais

2020: 21,43%

Goal for 2030: Increase

A BUMPY ROAD

“Intensified by the pandemic, there are still important challenges to overcome in order to achieve the gender equality advocated by the SDGs, which aim to leave no one behind. Halfway to 2030, what we have before us is still a bumpy road.”

THANK YOU!

