

O I D P

Cities of Opportunities: Connecting Culture and Innovation

Participatory practices and the right to the city at the heart of urban innovation

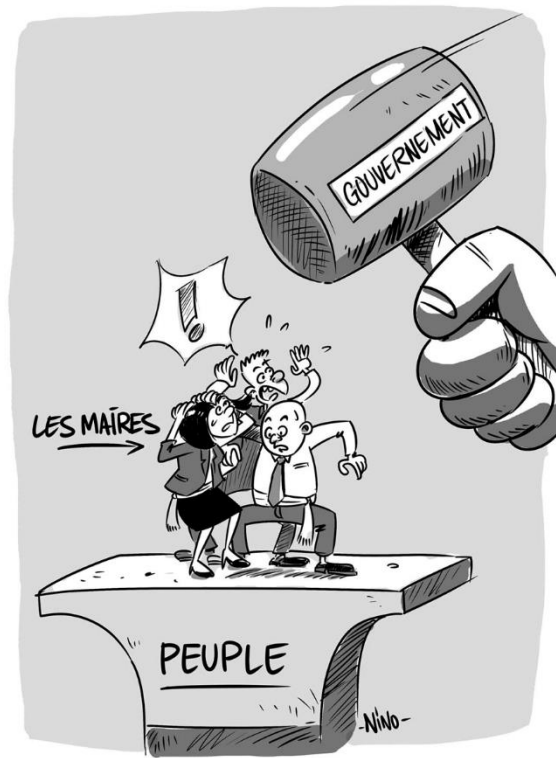

Summary

- The challenges of African cities
- Participatory budgeting a tools for local governance
- Principles and territories in Africa
- Going further: in participatory practice and innovation in territorial governance

the challenges of african cities

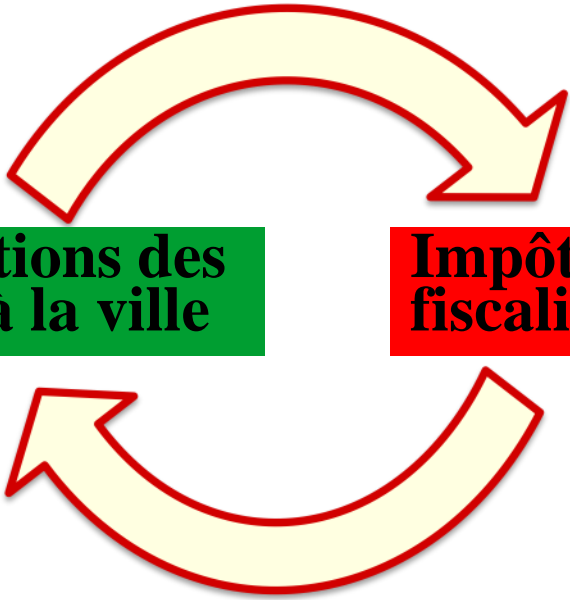

Pressing of citizens demand and low uptake of social, economic, cultural, rights.

Governance not sufficiently attentive to the needs of communities exposing them to: (i) health risks; (ii) risks related to vulnerable or hazardous employment; and (iii) external shocks due to natural disasters affecting cities and territories (OECD 2015).

Réalisations des droits à la ville

Impôts et fiscalités

Rights of cities
Budget

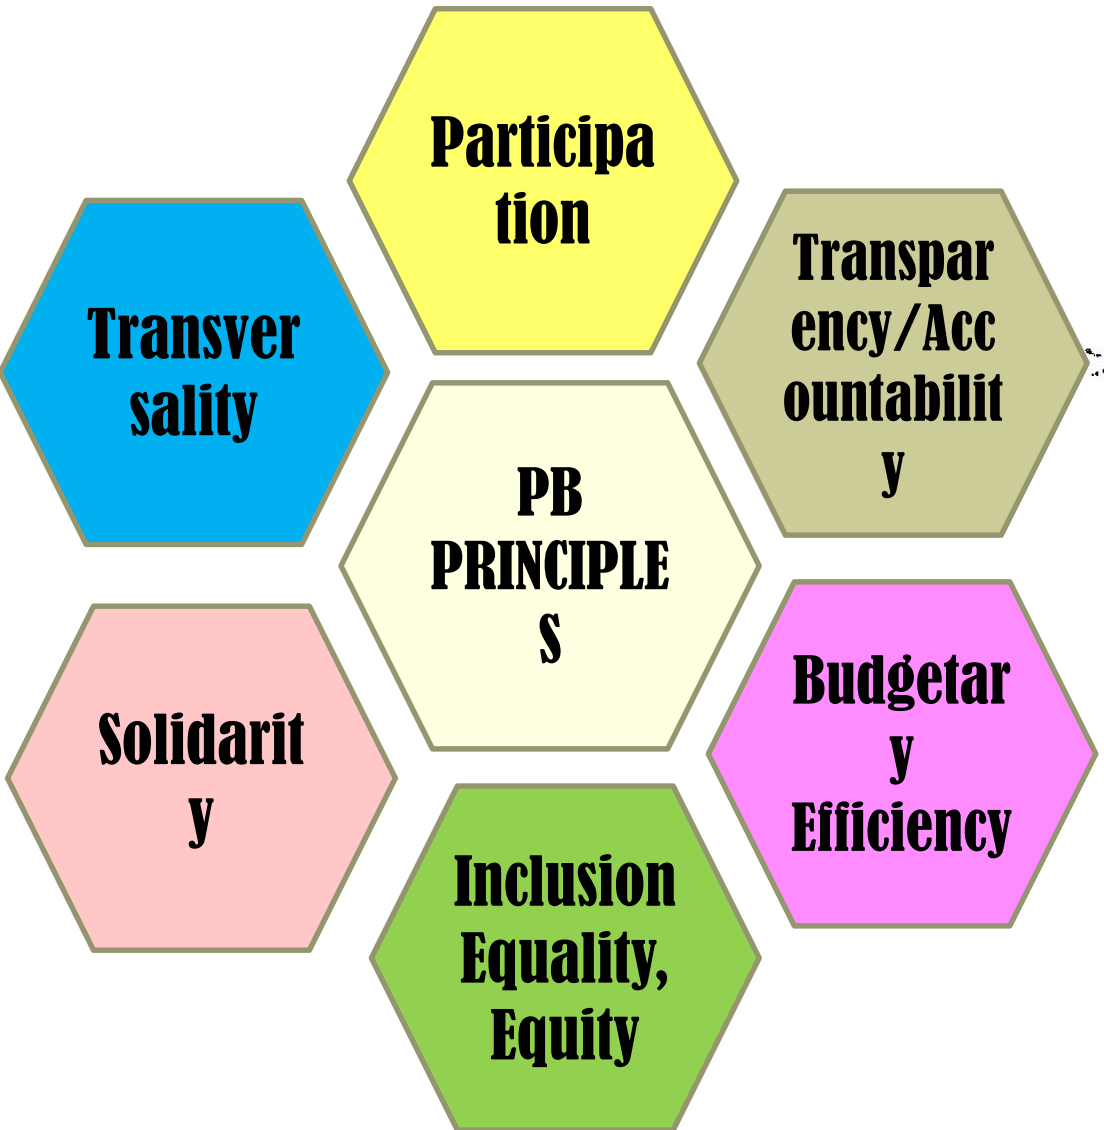

Citizen duties
Participation

Tools of participatory democracy

The Participatory Budget is defined as a democratic process in which communities participate in the debate on public policies and decide on the public resources available or are involved in decisions on their allocation and monitoring.

Principles and territories in Africa

958 case -27 countries
(sept 2019)

The Local Leadership Award to promote innovations and best practices in cities

Going further: Promoting participatory practices and innovation in cities

Thank You!

bachirkanoute@endaecopop.org

www.endaecopop.org

www.oidp-afrigue.org